

This Week We Throw Another Shell Into the Morro-Castle of Competition, for Tomorrow Begins Our ...Mid-Summer Clearing Sale...

A Dewey Stroke

See our east window for a display of the finest values in Oxford dress offered in Wichita, including nearly every style in black and chocolate, in the market this season in medium priced goods. If you are looking for something nobby and dressy, something neat and plain, something light and easy, something sound and serviceable, anything from the extreme point toe to the "old ladies" wide common sense toe, we believe we can accommodate you. Some lines are broken in size, but all must go, and to make them go fast we have bunched this lot and offer you your choice for.....

Chief among the attractions for this week's shoppers will be the grandest and most extensive yet placed on the boards by any Wichita house. A mammoth collection left over after the season's business from the largest dry goods stock in Kansas. All the odds and ends left from our Nine Cent Sale, now reduced. All the odds and ends left from our daily sales since January 1st, now mercilessly slaughtered. After the Remnant Sale is over, we expect this stock of goods to be absolutely clear of all surplus, for these prices are far below the lowest wholesale figures.

REMNANT SALE

REMNANTS OF SILKS

Everything remaining in the stock of five yards or less will go into this sale. Black Brocades, Fancy Brocade, Armores, Failles Taffeta Faconnes, Plaids, Surahs, Japs, Chinas. Some were $1, now they are 50c. Some were 75c, now they are 35c. Some were 60c, now they are 25c. All five yard lengths and under.

Men's Shirt Sale Tomorrow

This is a sale that is not likely to be matched again in twenty years. While we would like to interest the men in this sale, we expect that three-fourths of them will be bought by the men's wives. It's an occasion for wives to give their husbands a lesson in economy. There are two kinds of these shirts. Men's White Unlaundried and Men's Fancy Negligee Shirts.

The White Unlaundried Shirts

are made of Fruit of the Loom Muslin, linen bosoms, neck bands and collar bands, gusset seams, reinforced on side of bosom and back yoke; open back or front, or both. Button holes are perfectly worked. Bosom has back stiffening. These Shirts are in three grades, that ordinarily sell at 50c, 60c and 70c. They're good as any dollar and a quarter laundried shirt made. Any lady who buys these shirts and finds them unsatisfactory to her husband for any reason whatsoever, may return them on Tuesday and get her money back, without question. All sizes, and the price will be only.....

39c

Men's Negligee Shirts

There's 150 shirts in this lot. We haven't all sizes in them. All this season's styles bought this spring. Printed Percales in various patterns, attached turn-down collars and attached cuffs. Not a better shirt in the burg for less than 50c. If your husband's size is in the lot, it is yours tomorrow for.....

Gingham Aprons

Couldn't hem 'em for the money. In blue or brown checks. Good, liberal sizes. Each.....

Ladies' Vests

Cheaper than a laundry bill. Here's two hundred dozen, ribbed and lace edge, neck and shoulders. Each.....

Ladies' Silk Gloves

Not a black pair in the lot. All colors of them. Made of the best of silk. Some in the lot sold for 50c per pair, some sold for 75c per pair, some sold for 1.00 per pair. We're going to close them out this week at.....

23c

Ladies' Silk Bow Ties

About a hundred of them, and about twenty different kinds in the lot. They're not soiled or damaged, but they're out of style—badly out of style. We don't want to sell these to ladies to wear, for they'd only be in good taste at a masquerade ball. These bows are very large size, about as big as three of the ordinary kind. The silk in them is elegant (good for fancy work). When they're stylish we sold them at 50c and 10c each. Now.....
